2010-2011 CSRN Seminar Series Presents:

December 3, 2010: Alan Schwartz, MD
Professor of Medicine, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
Title: “Sleep Apnea Pathogenesis: From Man to Mouse”
Location: Reunion Hall, John Morgan Building, 12:00 PM

January 28, 2011: H. Craig Heller, PhD
Professor of Biological Sciences, Stanford University
Title: “Using Mouse Models of Learning Disabilities to Reveal Roles of Sleep and Rhythms in Learning and Memory”
Location: TBA

February 25, 2011: Colleen McClung, PhD
Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center
Title: “Circadian Genes and the Biology of Psychiatric Disorders”
Location: TBA

March 11, 2011: Debra Weese-Mayer, MD
Professor of Pediatrics, Northwestern University School of Medicine
Title: “Respiratory and Autonomic Disorders of Infancy, Childhood, and Adulthood (RADICA)”
Location: TBA

May 27, 2011: Ronald Szymusiak, PhD
Research Scientist, VA Greater Los Angeles Health System
Title: “Hypothalamic Regulation of Sleep Homeostasis”
Location: TBA

June 17, 2011: Pierre-Herve Luppi, PhD
Sleep Researcher, University of Lyon, France
Title: “The Neuronal Network Responsible for Paradoxical (REM) Sleep and its Dysfunctions Causing Narcolepsy and REM Behavior Disorder”
Location: TBA

Lunch will be provided at all seminars. Locations will be announced prior to the event. Seminars will take place at 12:00 PM unless otherwise specified. To subscribe to future CSRN seminar announcements, please contact Jen Montoya at montoyaj@upenn.edu.